

Harper Only Asks to Be Worked---Two N. Y. Clubs and Brooklyn Looming Up

HARPER WANTS MORE OPPORTUNITY IN MAJOR LEAGUE

By LOUIS A. DOUGHER.

CLEVELAND, July 20.—Harry Harper is on hand and he wants to try his luck in the big show again. The erratic southpaw blew into camp last evening in time to have his scouffin' with the boys and take in a few movies with his old roomie, Joe Boehling. Whether he will be seen against the Tigers remains to be seen. The Old Fox wants to see him in action before trusting him on the mound.

"I've had a great time in my nine weeks with the Minneapolis team," laughed Hackensack Harry. "I was in twenty-four games which is some work. No, I didn't pitch the whole twenty-four. Every now and then the crowd threatened to lynch Joe Cantillon and then I'd get a rest until the next day. Anyway, I showed 'em something in my last game. I shut out Columbus, 9 to 0."

"Now all I want is a chance to work a full game in the big show. I don't care if I do walk a hundred. Let batters go out and get me some runs. I'm back to stay."

Harper looks good after his sojourn in the tall grass. He says he is very tired, though, from the amount of work Joe Cantillon gave him. The Old Fox says nothing, but he may be glad Harper is tired. He may not be so wild.

It looks like a clean sweep here. That will allow the Griffs to leave for Detroit tonight with seven straight victories to their credit and thirteen wins to four teen defeats from the trip so far. The unexpected weakness of the Fohlians has given the Griffs their old confidence, and they will tramp into the jungle, looking for blood. They may get it, too, if these Tigers get wind of them.

Joe Boehling is due to pitch the opening game against the Detroit Tigers.

Bert Gallia has a sore foot. The aluminum plate on his right shoe has caused a large blister to form, and he can hardly work on the mound. It was the pain of this sore too more than anything else that caused his momentary weakness Sunday afternoon. The wound has been repaired now, and the Texan expects to win his game against the Tigers.

Walter Johnson was not forced yesterday, and will be sent against the Detroit Tigers Friday. Shaw will probably be the fourth Grifflin to tackle the Tigers in the coming series.

The society with the long name decided to do something to Lee Fohl. Or possibly the criminal is Charlie Somers. Anyway, to palm off upon a worthy public such a collection of players as a few dubbed the Indians is a shame.

Old Biting Bull must have turned over in his grave long since, and Oseola, Pontiac, Weatherford, Samost, Ratin-in-the-Race, and Gerono doubtless are writhing in torture. The Cleveland Indians are dead Indians. That means they are dead Indians. The only reason they will finish in the American League is the concrete foundations that will keep them from tumbling out.

To show what he thought of that aggregation yesterday, the Old Fox allowed the venerable Nicholas Arundel of Cincinnati, Chicago, and Washington, to decorate the rubber for three frames. Until the relic appeared the alleged Indians had acquired two miserable hits off Johnson, who worked under rap. They collected eight off Nick, but half of them were ducks, and now then the Grifflins wouldn't try for a drive, hoping to get a rise out of the comedian. The score was 11 to 4, but it amounts to nothing. The Griffs cared to do anything. They left after getting an nine-run lead, and the 200 fans present joined them in kidding the "Follies of 1915."

The first frame decided the contest. Eight stolen bases, four hits, two bingles, and six runs were marked up by the gentlemanly official scorer before Johnson's fly to Elmer Smith ended the orry. The scorer's pencil went out by that time. It was a nightmare, that's all. Only those absolutely compelled to stick around did so. The lucky few were those who rushed across the

LOS ANGELES MAN HAS SWIMMING MARK

Easily Shatters Best Previous Record Held by Duke Kohan-amoku.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., July 20.—Ludy Langer, of the Los Angeles A. C., won the Amateur Athletic Union open-water championship for the quarter mile yesterday, lowering the American record, formerly held by Duke Kahana-moku, of Honolulu, by five and three-tenths seconds. Langer's time was 1:52 1-5.

Wheatley and "Bud" Goodwin, both of the New York A. C., were second and third.

Langer won by a clean twenty yards. He took the lead early and steadily pulled away from the field.

Michael McDermott, of the Illinois Athletic Club, took the water first, but all the contestants were close behind him. Langer crawled and established a short, clear lead at the first turn, the 110-yard pole. Wheatley was three yards behind him and N. Ross, of the Multnomah Club, Portland, Ore., was third.

At the second turn Langer lengthened his lead and continued to gain until the finish.

Goodwin spurred into third, passing Ross at the 330-yard turn.

Goodwin finished in third, passing Ross at the 330-yard turn.

BUT ONE EASTERN WINS IN COAST TENNIS

Dean Mathey Takes Bundy Into Camp—Others Are Beaten.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 20.—The Panama-Pacific tennis tournament came to a conclusion Sunday in match play at singles, East vs. West. The invaders took one of the four matches, this honor falling to Dean Mathey, former Princeton star, who took Tom Bundy, of Los Angeles, into camp after five hard sets by the scores of 3-6, 3-4, 6-4, 4-6, and 6-1. Mathey was forced to the limit to win, but played his best game at crucial moments and found the going in the deciding set rather easy.

Watson M. Washburn, George M. Church, and R. Norris Williams, 2d, fell in succession before the Pacific Coast trio, John Strickland, William M. Johnston, and Maurice McLoughlin. Strickland won in straight sets from Washburn, 6-4, 6-4, 6-1.

Johnston, after his untimely loss of it in Saturday's play against McLoughlin, came back and displayed some brilliant tennis in his match with Church, winning at 6-1, 4-6, 6-1, 6-4.

The best match of the afternoon was the Williams-McLoughlin tilt. The California comet won after four sets and in a measure obtained revenge for his defeat of the last year for the national title by Williams. McLoughlin won after losing the first set, 4-6. Despite his hard match with Johnston on Saturday the internationalist was at top form and took the next three sets at 6-2, 6-2, 6-3.

Hopper Doing Well.

Booth Hopper, sent to Minneapolis by Griffith, won the first game he pitched, leading Columbus yesterday, 1 to 6, in a pitcher's battle with Schaubert. Each scored five hits.
